SUMNER COUNTY LAWYER CENSURED

On April 28, 2015, John T. Harding, an attorney licensed to practice law in Tennessee, received a Public Censure from the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Tennessee Supreme Court.

Mr. Harding failed to deposit a client's refundable fee into his trust account and instead commingled the funds into his operating account. Mr. Harding also had his client enter into a fee agreement seven (7) months after his representation began which was more advantageous to Mr. Harding without advising his client of the reasonable opportunity to seek the advice of independent counsel.

By these acts, John Thompson Harding has violated Rule of Professional Conduct 1.5 (fees), 1.8(a) (conflict of interest), and 1.15 (safekeeping property) and is hereby Publicly Censured for these violations.

A Public Censure is a rebuke and warning to the attorney, but it does not affect the attorney's ability to practice law.
