

Gene F. Guerre joined the family law firm of Rogers, Kamm & Shea as an associate attorney January 2018. Mr. Guerre was formerly the law clerk for Judge Philip E. Smith of the Twentieth Judicial District for almost four years. He is a graduate of the University of Tennessee and Nashville School of Law. Upon graduation, Mr. Guerre received the school's Founder's Inn Award for graduating as the school's Valedictorian. Mr. Guerre was also named a member of the school's prestigious Cooper's Inn Society. Mr. Guerre will be working in the firm's Domestic Law and Appellate Law Section.