

Adam Barber joined Martin Heller Potempa & Sheppard as an associate attorney in March 2019. Prior to joining MHPS, Adam served as the Probate Master for Davidson County under Judge Randy Kennedy since his appointment in the fall of 2015. For his undergraduate studies, Adam attended Grand Valley State University where he graduated Magna Cum Laude while attaining a B.B.A. in both Finance and Business Economics. Adam attended Vermont Law School where he attained his J.D. concurrent to a Master's in Environmental Law and Policy.