PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Elizabeth B. Stengel Elected First Female President of TACC

MEMPHIS, TN (April 19, 2018)- Evans Petree PC announces today that Shareholder Elizabeth B. Stengel has been elected the first female president of the Tennessee Association of Construction Counsel. The Tennessee Association of Construction Counsel, Inc. is a not-for-profit professional association that serves the needs of Tennessee attorneys with practices related to the construction industry. The Association presently consists of about 100 attorneys from across the State with practices serving contractors, building material and equipment suppliers, architects, engineers, and building owners and developers. Ms. Stengel previously served on the board as a director (2010-2013), secretary (2013-2015) and vice president (2016-2017) before being elected president in November of 2017.

Ms. Stengel focuses her practice on construction and surety law, and she serves as the practice area leader for the litigation practice group at Evans Petree. Since 2008, Mid-South Super Lawyers magazine has named her a Super Lawyer in construction litigation and is AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell. She was also recently selected by her peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2018 in the fields of construction litigation and construction law for the third year and designated as one of the Super Lawyers Top 50 Women Lawyers in the Mid-South. Ms. Stengel was selected as a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation as well as a 2017 finalist in the Memphis Business Journal's Best of the Bar Awards.

She is a member of the American Bar Association Forum on the Construction Industry, on the Specialty Trade Contractors & Suppliers Committee, is a member of the Memphis and Tennessee Bar Associations, and a member of the Memphis Bar Foundation. She is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, the United States District Courts for the Western, Middle, and Eastern Districts of Tennessee, the United States District Courts for the Northern District of Mississippi, and the United States District Courts for the Eastern District of Virginia.
