Eric Osborne Appointed to Legal Services Corporation Emerging Leaders Council

Nashville, TN – Attorney Eric G. Osborne, Counsel at Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, has been appointed to the newly-created Emerging Leaders Council of the Legal Services Corporation (LSC).

The LSC Emerging Leaders Council will bring together young leaders from across the country with the goals of increasing public awareness of the crisis in civil legal aid and the importance of providing equal access to justice to all low-income Americans. The group will meet regularly to discuss ways to expand and promote the efforts of the LSC, raise public and congressional awareness of the importance of legal aid organizations, and fundraise. The LSC is a federally-created, bipartisan non-profit that provides financial support to civil legal aid organizations nationwide.

At Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, Osborne focuses his practice on the firm's Antitrust and Cost Recovery practices. He spends the majority of his time on complex multi-district litigation matters. Osborne has considerable litigation experience ranging from trial work to Supreme Court advocacy. He has worked in appellate, commercial real estate, healthcare, oil & gas and religious institutions litigation. He has participated in eight cases before the United States Supreme Court as well as multiple cases before various state Supreme Courts.

Osborne earned his J.D. at Stanford Law School in 2010, where he served as chair of the graduate student council. He graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity, and received his undergraduate degree from Amherst College. Osborne serves as a board member of the Presbyterian Foundation, and a board member of the Medical Benevolence Foundation.

Originally from Memphis, with deep family roots in Tennessee, Osborne and his family live in Nashville.

Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, founded in 1981, provides legal services to businesses and individual clients in a wide variety of litigation and corporate practices. The firm is home to thirty-five attorneys and is located in the Pinnacle Building in downtown Nashville. For more information, please visit www.srvhlaw.com.
