McDowell Joins Bone McAllester Norton

Robert G. McDowell has joined the Nashville law firm of Bone McAllester Norton PLLC.

For over 45 years, Mr. McDowell has provided quality legal representation and counsel to the Middle TN area. He routinely advises clients on matters related to finance and banking law, business dissolutions and acquisitions, business torts, construction law, and sales secured transactions at the federal, state, and local levels. Mr. McDowell regularly works with the State Executive Branch, and the Departments of Economic & Community Development, Finance & Administration, Transportation, Commerce & Insurance, Department of Health, Department of Financial Institutions, Comptroller of the Treasury, and several others.

Mr. McDowell is widely respected for his legal expertise. Since 2005, Bob has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America in the areas of Arbitration and Mediation, and Administrative/Regulatory Law. Additionally, Bob has served as Tennessee's Loss Prevention Coordinator on behalf of the Attorney's Liability Assurance Society, Inc. (ALAS). From 1988-2017, he was former chair of the Fee Disputes Committee of the Nashville Bar Association. Bob also serves as Executive Council of the Litigation Section of the Tennessee Bar Association from 2016 to present. With his leadership and litigation background, Bob brings a wealth of experience and expertise to Bone McAllester Norton. Mr. McDowell will serve as Of Counsel at the firm.

Before joining Bone McAllester Norton, Mr. McDowell practiced law at Baker Donelson in Nashville.

Bone McAllester Norton, an entrepreneurial law firm of 40 attorneys with offices in Nashville, and Sumner and Williamson Counties, provides a wide range of legal services to its clients. Bone law focuses on 18 distinct practice areas, including litigation, banking and commercial lending, corporate and securities transactions, mergers and acquisitions, intellectual property, labor and employment and environmental, along with a full breadth of legal services typically required by businesses and individuals.
