Lauren Curry named Member at Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison

Nashville, TN – Attorney Lauren Curry has been named a member at Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, announced member Bill Harbison. Curry’s practice focuses on business litigation and insurance coverage disputes. She has been with the firm since 2012.

“Lauren is a talented and enthusiastic part of our team and also deeply involved in the Nashville community,” said Harbison. “We are pleased to welcome her into membership and are extremely fortunate to have her.”

Curry was selected for inclusion in the Nashville Bar Foundation’s 2017-18 Leadership Forum program. She was a finalist for the Nashville Emerging Leader Award in both 2017 and 2018. She has also been listed in “Super Lawyers” as a Mid-South Rising Star since 2014. Curry is a member of the Nashville Bar Association, the Tennessee Bar Association and the American Bar Association. She served as District Representative of the Young Lawyers Division of the Tennessee Bar Association for two years.

Curry is currently the Board Chair of the Board of Directors for The Family Center and serves on the Board of Directors of the Nashville Zoo.

Curry received her J.D. in 2011 from Vanderbilt University Law School, where she was senior articles editor of the Vanderbilt Law Review and elected to the Order of the Coif. Curry received several Vanderbilt Scholastic Excellence Awards as well as the Lightfoot, Franklin & White Best Oralist Award and the Mock Trial Quarterfinalist & Top Litigator Award. She was a member of Phi Delta Phi and recipient of a Law School Merit Scholarship. Curry earned a B.A. in Psychology, cum laude, at the University of the South in 2004.

Prior to law school, Curry served the citizens of Davidson County for nearly four years as a patrol officer with the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department, where she was also certified as a Mounted Horse Patrol officer.

Sherrard Roe Voigt & Harbison, founded in 1981, provides legal services to businesses and individual clients in a wide variety of litigation and corporate practices. The firm is home to thirty-five attorneys and is located in the Pinnacle Building in downtown Nashville. For more information, please visit www.srvhlaw.com.
