

NEWS FROM: Taylor, Pigue, Marchetti & Blair PLLC
January 16, 2019

CONTACT: Frederick Strobel
fgs@burgundygroup.com
615-948-3836

LAUREN POOLE HONORED BY NASHVILLE BAR JOURNAL

(Nashville, Tenn.) Lauren Poole, an Associate Attorney at Taylor, Pigue, Marchetti and Blair PLLC (tpmbLAW), received the 2018 Nashville Bar Journal Contributor of the Year Award at the Annual Meeting and Banquet in December.

The award recognizes a Nashville Bar Journal committee member who went beyond the call of duty to ensure the success of the publication. Poole, who was recently named Co-Chair of the Nashville Bar Journal Editorial Committee, practices civil litigation, including bankruptcy and creditors' rights at tpmbLAW.

"Going above and beyond the expected is how Lauren works," said Gino Marchetti, Jr., attorney and managing member at tpmbLAW. "This award is a reflection of her commitment to the law and to the dedication she brings to her legal work, both for our clients and our profession. We are pleased to see her honored in this way."

Poole earned a B.A. in Political Science and a B.A. in Studio Art from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. She earned her J.D. from Belmont University College of Law in 2016. An active supporter of the arts, she currently serves on the Board of Turnip Green Creative Reuse. She has also been published regularly. Her editorial, An Overview of the CFPB: Past, Present, and Future, was published in the Nashville Bar Journal's June/July 2018 Issue. Her article The Nuts & Bolts of Bankruptcy Law, was featured as the Nashville Bar Journal Online, Article of the Month in March 2018.

Founded in 1954, tpmbLAW PLLC engages in general civil practice including civil litigation, corporate and governmental representation and bankruptcy and creditors' rights. More information is available at www.tpmblaw.com.