NASHVILLE, Tenn. (May 10, 2019)—Go Build Tennessee recently appointed Stites & Harbison, PLLC attorney Jamie F. Little to their Board of Directors.

Little is Counsel to Stites & Harbison based in the Nashville, Tenn., office. She is a member of the Construction Service Group and has more than 10 years of legal experience. She routinely represents owners, general contractors, subcontractors, design professionals and suppliers with contract drafting, contract negotiation, contract disputes, payment disputes and lien enforcement. Little has guided clients throughout all stages of litigation from pre-litigation negotiations through trial. She has successfully argued before trial and appellate courts in Tennessee, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. She also has extensive experience representing clients in alternative dispute resolution such as mediation and arbitration. Outside of the firm, Little is a member of the Tennessee Association of Construction Counsel (TACC) and the American Bar Association Forum on Construction Law.

Go Build is a workforce development initiative focused on addressing the skills gap crisis by enhancing the image of the construction industry and educating young people about opportunities in the skilled trades. Since 2016, Go Build Tennessee has been engaging, informing and inspiring the next generation of skilled workers in Tennessee.
