

Matthew R. Muenzen

Matthew Muenzen was recently named the Assistant City Attorney for the City of Franklin in Williamson County. Prior to working for the City of Franklin, Muenzen was an associate attorney with Freeman & Fuson in Nashville. There, Muenzen practiced various types of civil and criminal litigation throughout Middle Tennessee. Prior to working at Freeman & Fuson, Muenzen worked as a lawyer for the Tennessee Department of Children's Services for almost nine years. After graduating from Penn State University with a degree in Administration of Justice, Muenzen was employed as a police officer in New Jersey for six years. While working in law enforcement, Muenzen received a graduate degree in Human Resources Management and Training from Seton Hall University in New Jersey and his law degree from Pace University in New York.