CAMMON NAMED CHATTANOOGA BAR ASSOCIATION FELLOW

Chattanooga (July 27, 2018) –

Tonya Kennedy Cammon, an attorney with the Chattanooga firm Grant, Konvalinka & Harrison, P.C., was recently honored by her election as a Fellow of the Chattanooga Bar Foundation. The mission of the CBA Fellows is to promote and improve the legal profession, elevate the ethical standards of the bench and bar, and improve relations between members of the legal profession and the public. The CBA Fellows also sponsor scholarships and are actively involved in charitable giving.

Ms. Cammon has practiced with the firm of Grant, Konvalinka & Harrison since 1993. Her practice focuses primarily on employment matters, health care and litigation. In addition to formerly serving as the firm's Managing Director, Ms. Cammon has held many leadership positions in several legal organizations. She currently serves as Chair of the Federal Bar Association's Task Force for Access to Justice. The community organizations with which Ms. Cammon has worked are numerous, and she is a current Board member of Chattanooga Room in the Inn and the Downtown Council of the Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce.
