Adams and Reese Announces Two New Partners for 2019

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Adams and Reese is proud to congratulate two of its attorneys who have been elected to partnership in the firm, effective January 1, 2019.

Kristina Montanaro Schrader practices in the firm's Nashville office and serves as Adams and Reese's Anti-Counterfeiting Team Leader. She crafts modern brand and content protection strategies for a wide range of multinational businesses in her global intellectual property practice, which also includes representation in the areas of cybersecurity, entertainment and new media. Schrader received her LL.M. from the George Washington University Law School in 2011, her J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School in 2010 and her B.A. from College of Charleston in 2007. (Photo of Kristina Montanaro Schrader available on the firm's website.)

Rob Breunig practices in the firm's Nashville office. He helps clients with issues surrounding executive compensation and compensatory benefit plans, and represents companies in mergers and acquisitions. He also drafts and revises plan documents and employee communications, investment policies and investment management agreements, trust agreements, and other plan service-provider contracts. Breunig received his LL.M. and J.D. from the University of San Diego School of Law in 2013 and 2012, respectively. He is a 2006 graduate of University of Massachusetts Lowell. (Photo of Rob Breunig available on the firm's website.)
