TCV Trust and Wealth Management ("TCV"), an asset management firm providing trust administration, estate services & investment management to individuals, families, endowments and foundations, announced a growth and expansion strategy that includes the opening of its first Tennessee office in Knoxville. John L. Billings has joined TCV as vice president of client administration and managing officer for its newest office.

Prior to joining TCV, John practiced law representing the financial & real estate industries and subsequently served as associate general counsel for an insurance holding conglomerate in Tennessee. He is a graduate of the Southeastern Trust School and a member of the Knoxville Estate Planning Council, Knoxville and Tennessee Bar Associations ("TBA"). Further, he is a Fellow with the TBA Young Lawyers Division where he previously served on the board, past Chair of the TBA's Corporate Counsel practice section while also serving on its Executive Council, and a 2016 alumnus of the TBA Leadership Law program.
