

ATTENTION ATTORNEYS: HELP STOP BULLYING IN SCHOOLS

Empower Young People and their Families

Join the Nashville Predators and Disability Law & Advocacy Center (DLAC) and earn pro bono hours by volunteering at one of The Puck Stops Here anti-bullying legal clinics in Middle Tennessee. Free and open to the public, these clinics will help students and their families identify, prevent, and legally respond to bullying in schools. Volunteer attorneys are needed at the clinics for brief client consultations and to assist clients in drafting key points of Notification Letter to a school and/or an OCR Complaint. DLAC will provide training for all volunteer attorneys on bullying legal issues on August 24, 2012. Please consider volunteering and help to end bullying in schools.
